Preferred Citation note

Center for Migration Studies of New York; Arthur P. ("Skip") Endres Papers (CMS 105); Box; Folder.

Biographical/Historical note

---

Arthur P. Endres served as counsel for the House Judiciary Committee, Subcommittee on Immigration, Refugees, and International Law from 1973-1989.

---

Scope and Contents note

The collection consists of documents Endres created or used during his tenure (1973-1989) as counsel for the United States House of Representatives Judiciary Committee, Subcommittee on Immigration, Refugees, and International Law. It provides rare primary sources of how migration and refugee law is made and how that process might be improved for future generations of immigrants.
